IN THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF ARIZONA

IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF LA PAZ

IN THE MATTER OF:	)	ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER
	)
	)	No. 2009-001
RULE 7(C) ARIZONA RULES OF FAMILY LAW PROCEDURE	)
	)

WHEREAS, Rule 7(A) of Arizona Family Law Procedure (ARFLP), allows any person filing initial or post-judgment documents, to request the court to designate that party's address as protected; and

WHEREAS, if the court orders the address protected, the clerk shall protect the address from public disclosure until the court orders otherwise; and

WHEREAS, Rule 7(C) of ARFLP provides that any person required to serve a response or other document upon a person whose address is ordered protected may serve the same by delivering true and correct copies of the documents to be served, together with the proper fee established by administrative order to cover the cost of service, to the clerk of the court;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, effective this date, in addition to any requisite filing fee, the Postage and Handling fee as defined by A.R.S. § 12-284(A)(G) shall be charged to cover the clerk of court's cost of service per document served upon a party whose address is ordered protected.

DATED this 14 day of January, 2009.

MICHAEL J. BURKE, Presiding Judge
